STIPENDS for NENS Training Stays

Application Deadline: 1 March 2008

Federation of European Neuroscience Societies

Are you a student at a NENS school and would like to gain international experience?

After its successful launch in 2007 NENS in cooperation with FENS is pleased to announce a new call for applications in 2008 for its trans-European NENS exchange programme.

Stipends will cover travel and accommodation costs of up to 1000 Euros.

The stipends are intended for Master and PhD students registered within NENS member schools or programmes. Applicants are expected to spend a period of one to three months at a NENS member school of their choice in a different European country for the purpose of research or methodological training.

International stays within the NENS community will be prioritised in accordance with the NENS ethos of fostering training and exchange at the level of graduate research and education across the European neuroscience community.
